HARVARD BUSINESS SCHOOL CASE STUDIES

A PART OF
THE TEACHING CULTURE
OF THE WORLD'S BEST
BUSINESS SCHOOLS

Image used is for representation purpose only.

A dynamic approach that mirrors the challenges and complexities of real-world businesses

Harvard Business School Case Studies are designed to present the most difficult situations in business history. Each case is a journey through a complex, multi-disciplined business challenge. The students are placed in the role of decision makers and are expected to come up with a well-reasoned and a strategic solution to tackle the given challenge on their own. This is to test their ability to utilize their analytical and communication skills and train them for future job roles.

WHY IS IT AN EFFICIENT LEARNING MODEL?

IT'S INTERESTING

Framing a complex financial topic as a case study brings the subject to life and makes the scenario easy to understand.

IT'S INTERACTIVE

Through the dynamic process of exchanging perspectives, countering and defending viewpoints, and building on each other's ideas, students become proficient at conveying individual thought-processes and bringing unique perspectives to the high-engagement case discussion.

IT'S AN ACTIVE LEARNING METHOD

To get the most out of cases, students read and reflect on the case and discuss their findings with other classmates. Hence, it's an incredible way to gain experience and at the same time, understand varied perspectives to solve specific situations.

IT DEVELOPS VITAL SKILLS

The case study approach stimulates a real environment and develops a wide range of vital skills. These include negotiation, analysis, articulating arguments clearly and concisely, team and lone working, and the ability to make informed decisions – all that the employers are looking for.

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING THROUGH IMMERSION PROGRAMS & CAPSTONE COURSES

Lectures are passé. Instead, students discuss real-world business cases & situations in the classroom and apply their knowledge in the field.

They build core skill-sets through experiential learning, team projects and immersion programs.

Visits to various local and rural financial institutions and banking sites help students deepen their understanding of financial markets, best business practices, consumer behaviour and cultural norms.

IN CLASS & ON-FIELD

IMMERSION PROGRAMS

Immersion Programs are designed to give students a hands-on learning experience where they plunge into site visits and live cases. Visits to various local and rural financial institutions and banking sites helps deepen their understanding of financial markets, best business practices, consumer behaviour and cultural norms. It immerses them in unique opportunities to gain an insider's view into the daily life of bankers and helps them understand the intricacies of the economic environment.

CAPSTONE COURSES

“ FOR THE THINGS WE HAVE TO LEARN BEFORE WE CAN DO THEM, WE LEARN BY DOING THEM. ”
ARISTOTLE

Knowing-Being-Doing

Capstone courses enhance the knowledge and understanding of solid business fundamentals and develop advanced analytical skill-sets through doing and practice. This approach stimulates new ways of thinking and thus, learning.

BANKING INNOVATION & DISRUPTION

Article-Based exercises: Students are to analyze articles related to various banking practices, innovations, new banking models, products, research or management concepts etc.

BANKING & SERVICE INTERVENTIONS WITH CUSTOMERS

Location & Research-Based: This course takes a dive into the customer-centric approach of banks. How do banks differ and converge in their customer experience delivery? The course is an attempt at the mental conditioning/modeling of participants towards customer-centricity.

HOLLYMAN

REAL-TIME DATA AT STUDENTS' FINGERTIPS

THE ECONOMIC TIMES GIVES YOU ACCESS
TO SOME OF THE WORLD'S MOST READ
FINANCIAL INFORMATION AND RESEARCHED DATA.

ET FinPro is an innovative video-based learning platform that uses exclusive Economic Times data to help students understand the global business model through research and teamwork.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

ANCHOR LECTURE – VIDEO TUTORIAL

A current and comprehensive subject is delivered as a video tutorial by an experienced instructor to simplify the student's learning experience.

INTERACTIVE SESSIONS

Moving away from lectures being delivered to the students, it's the students who now take the lead in class through constant discussions and sharing of ideas. The professor facilitates and guides the discussion, asking questions and eliciting participation from the entire class to enrich the discussion with contrasting viewpoints and to clear doubts, if any.

PROJECT ALLOCATION

Students are further allocated team projects based on the given topic to carry out an independent research outside of the lecture/tutorial environment.

PRESENTATION

Students are required to present their work in a variety of formats including oral presentations, articles, posters and reports. This develops work imperative skills such as critical thinking, decision-making, leadership abilities, effective teamwork and business presentation skills.

SIMPLIFYING BANKING PROCESSES IN THE COMPLEX WORLD

Mansi Shah KL University

2014-16 Batch – MBA in Banking and Financial Services
Relationship Manager, AU Small Finance Bank (Ahmedabad) since March 2017
(Ex HDFC Bank, Ahmedabad)

"The program was really well sketched out. We indulged in practical learning as much as we did in theory; there were projects and workshops galore. Exposure to Finacle Software and Industry Certifications are the two main aspects that have helped me in my current job."

Breeze Sahu Sharda University

2015-17 Batch – MBA in Banking Services
Sr. Associate, City Union Bank, Kolkata

"TimesPro catapults your career by giving placement opportunities after the 1st year of the course. You've have already stepped out in the corporate world, have gained working experience even before you earn your degree, and that kind of an edge is what sets you apart plus the extra certifications like DBF, NCFM, etc. gives you added advantage over any other MBA program. The classes were made interactive by visiting renowned professors and industry practitioners; there was never a dull moment. The Immersion and Capstone modules added meaning to the learning."

Bhuvana Sundari R SRM University

2015-17 Batch – MMS in Banking & Financial Services
Credit Relationship Manager, HDB Financial Services, Chennai

"TimesPro's curriculum is very rigorous so I would advise my juniors to utilize time very wisely. Every little aspect or assignment incorporated in the program is so important and hence time management is crucial. I thoroughly enjoyed the ET FinPro experience by Economic Times. We learnt concepts more thoroughly and at a faster pace through projects and presentations. I really like the fact that certifications like NISM, NCFM and DBF are incorporated in the program which gives us a competitive advantage during placements."

Manaswini Kora Jain University

2015-17 Batch – MMS in Banking & Financial Services
Tax Consultant, Deloitte Tax Services India Pvt. Ltd., Bengaluru

"It has been an amazing experience with TimesPro. I love the whole idea and the structure of the program where we are exposed to both classroom training and real world corporate life. The faculty has played an important role to not only develop our knowledge base but also various soft skills like communication and presentation. The highlight for me has been the Immersion Program, where we actually experienced the concepts we learnt in the classroom. We visited banks, observed various transactions and interacted with bankers and customers. During my interview, I was immensely confident because of this exposure. The employer was so impressed when I described the program and what we learnt from it. All in all, I would recommend this program to all my juniors because this one truly helps in building the foundation of your career."

Jasmin K S Jain University

2015-17 Batch – MMS in Banking & Financial Services
Tax Analyst, Ernst & Young Global Ltd., Bengaluru

"I personally came from a B.Tech Background so before starting the course I had absolutely zero knowledge about the financial and banking industry. Our batch was a tight-knit community so we had the benefit to have more frequent interactions with our professors. The faculty and the visiting experts are immensely experienced and they share in-depth insights with us. The theory we learnt in the classroom and the practical assignments undertook made our domain knowledge so strong that we clearly stood out among other candidates during the placement process."
